(please print)

Please review with your son/daughter the items below and sign where indicated. This statement becomes part of the permanent record.

Making the choice to attend The Georgetown School assumes that students and families have chosen this school, at least in part, because of the values the school holds. The education and values, which brings us together goes beyond the classroom: it is centered upon elements of citizenship and respect for everyone and everything around us. Whatever the personal or cultural values of families or of students, the enrollment of a student at The Georgetown School signifies his or her agreement and obligation to comply with the rules and regulations, policies, and disciplinary procedures as published in the most recent edition of The Student Handbook and as traditionally practiced. By signing below, parents and students agree to abide by the letter and spirit of The Georgetown School's policies, practices and procedures in The Student Handbook. This Statement of Understanding is hereby made of and incorporated into the Enrollment Contract.
